

THE SPIRITUAL BUSINESS NETWORK

PRESENTS

“Connect!”

by John Klymshyn

The importance of, and skill required to connect with people is outlined with humor and a finger placed firmly on the pulse of modern business. We all want things to move forward, but our reluctance, or lack of skill prevent us from achieving all that we are capable of. This presentation leaves audiences with answers to: How do I move the people, processes, and relationships to the next logical step? What are the common sense approaches that all people respond to? What must I do to become a better Leader/ Motivator/ Coach?

John Klymshyn is a professional speaker, a life-long student of the art of communication, and the author of "How To Sell Without Being A JERK!", "The Ultimate Sales Managers' Guide", and over 120 articles on the topics of sales, business development, communication skills and management. John spends his time traveling the world speaking about Moving Conversations Forward™ his trademarked process for sales, parenting, leadership, and communication skills.
